Foreword

The BC Labour Directory is an annual publication of the Policy and Legislation Branch of the Ministry of labour and Consumer Services which compiles information with respect to membership and officials of collective bargaining organizations in the province. The reference date for statistical information is January 1, 1992.

Information for this publication is obtained primarily from Statistics Canada's C.A.L.U.R.A. (Corporations and labour Unions Returns Act) Survey and is supplemented by information received directly from labour organizations in British Columbia. Every effort is made to obtain accurate and up-to-date information. The reliability of the information depends mainly on the accuracy of the respondents.

Particular attention is drawn to the union index at the end of the publication. Since some unions have locals with distinct and different names, and some unions are known by short names or initialism, this index is included to serve as a finding guide to the union listing including full and short forms, initialisms and local names.

We wish to thank all those who cooperated during the gathering of the information that went into the preparation of the BC Labour Directory. In the event that errors or omissions are discovered, it would be appreciated if they were brought to our attention (call [604] 387-1776 in Victoria). The publication was produced by staff members Sharon Churchill and Patrick Stanton.

UNION MEMBERSHIP SUMMARY - 1992

In 1992, trade union membership in British Columbia reached 527,158 members. This total represented a 2% increase from the 1991 totals and was the highest annual total ever recorded in B.C. As a result of this increase, the overall proportion of the provincial paid workforce belonging to unions rose to 39.4% comparable to ratios attained in the 1940's but still a substantial drop from the higher ratio of unionization attained in this province in the last thirty years.

One new union was added to this year's publication; the Pipeline Employees' Association. Several trade unions underwent organizational or structural changes which are reflected in the Directory. These included:

- CAIMAW merged with Canadian Auto Workers
- Vocational Instructors' Association of B.C. joined College Institute Educators
- Nurses' Staff Union became Local 444 of CPU
- Patternmakers League of North America became a division of Machinists Union
- Juvenile Furniture Employees' Assoc. joined United Steelworkers
- Campbell River Transit Workers Assn joined ICTU, Local 3

A total of 27 trade unions in the province had a membership in excess of 5,000 in 1992 - these are listed in the accompanying Table 2. Major trade unions posting membership gains of 5% or higher included CUPE, BCGEU, HSA and Canadian Auto Workers due to the merger with CAIMAW this year. A few major labour organizations reported a decline in membership in 1992 compared to 1991. These included IWA-Canada, IBEW and UA.

Table 3 provides a breakdown of union membership by sex and lists those unions with a female membership exceeding 1,000. Overall, the number of women belonging to trade unions totalled 211,015 in 1992. This was an increase of 7784 or 3.8%. Male union membership increased 0.8% over the same period of time. Women now represent 40% of all union members within the province. The HEU, BCTF, BCGEU, CUPE and the BCNU were the unions representing the most women members. Each had over 20,000 women members and combined represented 60.8% of all female union membership in the province.

In Table 4, a breakdown of union membership information by industrial sector is provided. Overall, the numerical and percentage distribution of membership by industry shows only marginal change from the previous year, and this change has tended to parallel industrial adjustments towards an expanding service sector of our economy. For example, union membership growth appears to have been most rapid in the Community Services and Public Administration sectors where membership expanded by nearly 4%. Union membership in the Mining and Manufacturing sectors experienced a decrease in 1992 of 13% and 7%, respectively.

Union Headquarters and Locals

This section contains membership and officer information for both headquarters and locals of unions in British Columbia. Entries are arranged in alphabetical order according to the short name of the labour organizations although no official recognition of such abbreviated titles is intended. In those instances where a union's short name is derived from the initials of its full name, alphabetical listing is usually based on the first word in the full name. (For example CUPE comes under "Canadian Union" rather than under "CU").

Beneath the short and full title listing of each union is its affiliation, if any, to international and/or national congresses or federation. Abbreviations used are:

AFL-CIO	-American Federation of Labor -Congress of Industrial Organizations
CLC	-Canadian Labour Congress
CFL	-Canadian Federation of Labour
BC Fed	-British Columbia Federation of Labour
CCU	-Confederation of Canadian Union
AFL-CIO/CLC	-affiliated with both bodies
